EXCERPT TO THE EVENING WORLD.

GUTENBERG RACE TRACK, May 7.—The usual Saturday crowd turned out to see the races on the hilltop to-day.

The card was an excellent one and the talent saw that they would have no easy time picking winners.

The track was in excellent shape and dry, and the weather pleasant, though trifle windy.

The sport began with a dash of seven furlongs, with the Western getting Justice, a hot favorite. He was heavily backed in the ring and his people got as much as $10,000 to back him. He was never in the hunt. They beat him from the start. Pretty Wild from start to finish, and won a half-length and half a length over Justice.

The two others were a good betting horse and colt, Harpoon and Burrold.

The Narko colt was at 2 to 1, and he was a good bet, too, but he was beaten all the way through, though the Narko colt pressed him closely at the end.

The start was delayed by the Athenee, who, with Lorraine colt, was nearly left at the gate.

Tango was favorite in the third race, but could not do better than fifth. Lord Harry, who had been taken down a few days ago, was comfortable by a length from Vagabond, who was second choice, and who made all the running. Burrold's weight killed his chances.

EXCERPT TO THE EVENING WORLD.

WASHINGTON (BENNINGS RACE TRACK), May 7.—Getaway day at Bennings is marked by conditions which should make the windup as interesting and enjoyable as any day of the meeting.

An excellent programme, including two steeplechase events has attracted a large attendance.

The weather is clear and bright, and a refreshing breeze toys both an extensive and expensive military flower-garden in the grand-stand.

In the first event, Jimmy Lambley opened favorite at 4 to 5, but a heavy plunge on trapson Lambley to 2 to 1, 3 to 5 being the favor.
